

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. MICHAEL MOODY, Defendant.)))))))))	8:08CR116 ORDER
--	---	--

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Michael Moody (Moody) (Filing No. 19). Moody seeks an additional forty-five days in which to file pretrial motions. Moody's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Moody has filed an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Moody's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 19) is granted. Moody is given until on or before September 15, 2008, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 1, 2008 and September 15, 2008, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 1st day of August, 2008.
